

Overview of WGIA4

WGIA Secretariat

Greenhouse Gas Inventory Office of Japan (GIO)
National Institute for Environmental Studies (NIES)
umemiya.chisa@nies.go.jp

Welcome Participants!

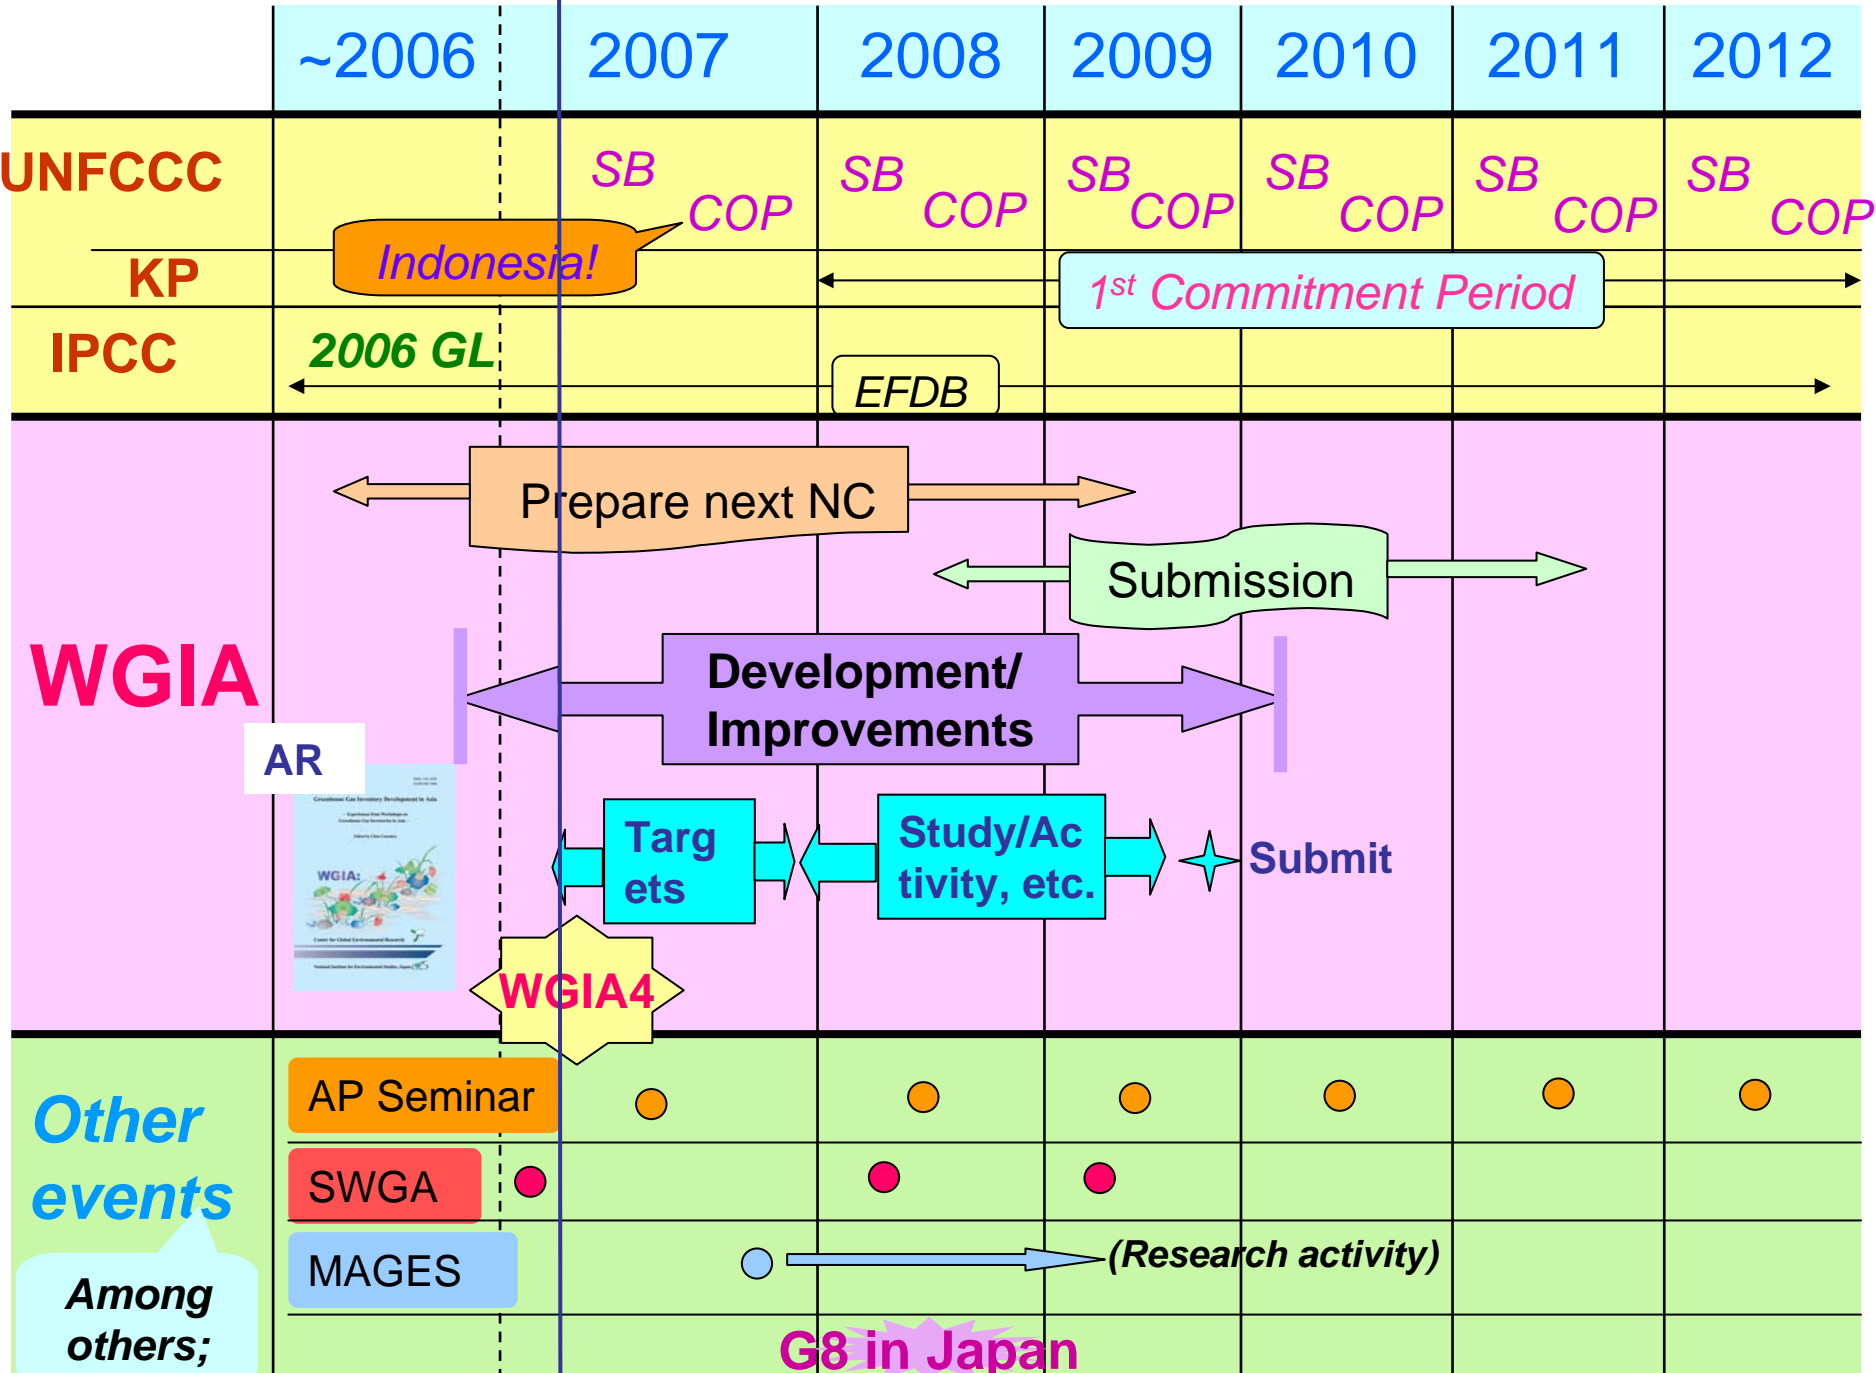

- 47 inventory-related government officials and researchers from 12 countries (including around 10 local participants from Indonesia)
- 3 representatives from international organisations
 - UNFCCC Secretariat
 - IPCC-NGGIP/TSU
 - World Agroforestry Centre

* The figures shown are as of Feb. 8, 2007.

Joint Hosting Organisations

- Ministry of the Environment of Japan
- National Institute for Environmental Studies
- Ministry of Environment of Indonesia (Local host)

Notes: SWGA is "Improvement of Solid Waste Management and Reduction of GHG emission in Asia"; MAGES is "Monsoon Asia Agricultural Greenhouse Gas Emission Studies".

Diagram of workshop flow

Session I: Updates on GHG Inventories

- Country News

Session II: Sector-By-Sector Inventory Development

- Energy
- Agriculture
- Land-Use Change & Forestry
- Waste

➤ Working Group Report from each group

Session III: Quality Assurance & Quality Control

- Country/Expert Report

Session IV: Toward Better GHG Inventory Development in Asia

- Reports from the international organisations
- Overall discussion!

Day 1

Day 2

Please try to find out about:

- ✓ Ideas or requests for future activities in the region and your country, taking into account new inventories to be developed
- ✓ Collaborative relationships between participants
- ✓ Practical and useful information you can actually try to apply when you return home
- ✓ Latest inventory-related information at the global and regional level